

THE SOUTH AFRICAN TRANSLATORS' INSTITUTE

This certifies that

LAETITIA SULLIVAN

(Member number 1002428)

is an individual member in good standing with the Institute and adheres to the SATI code of ethics.

Johan Blaauw Chairperson

This certificate is valid until 28 February 2027.

221-495 NPO

Code of ethics:

To endeavour constantly to achieve the highest possible quality in respect of accuracy of rendering, terminological correctness, language and style • To accept full responsibility for their translations and to bring unresolved problems to the attention of their clients/employers • To accept no work that is beyond them (with regard to deadline and knowledge of source language, target language and subject), except with the knowledge of their clients/employers, and to keep to agreed deadlines and forms of delivery • Constantly to pursue self-improvement in order to improve the quality of their work; to share their professional knowledge with other members, but to maintain a relationship of trust with their clients/employers and to treat all information that comes to their attention in the course of their work as confidential • Not to accept any work that, in their opinion, is intended for unlawful or dishonest purposes or is contrary to the public interest • To be guided in negotiating remuneration by the principle of equitability and fairness • To respect all rights of the author and the client/employer, and specifically copyright • Always to uphold the highest ethical and moral standards in their dealings with their clients/employers and in the practice of their occupation as translator • To take part in the activities of the Institute and always to conduct themselves in such a way that their conduct and the quality of their work will be to the credit of the Institute and translation as an occupation.